LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

EDITORS APPEAL—Now that the leading dry goods and millinery houses have consented to close up their places of business for the summer menths at six o'clock in the evening, beginning Monday, June 21st, would it not be well for the generous and kind-hearted ladies of the city and adjacent vicinity to guide themselves accordingly—that is, each one make it their special business not to do any shopping after six o'clock in the evening. The proprietors have cheerfully consented to the early closing movement, and all that is now necessary to make it a success is the hearty co-operation and as support of the ladies to aid the public-spirited merchants in carrying out in good faith what they have promised without any snapping, flincking or dodging.

DESERVED COMPLIMENT

Brothers' Band ond Orchestra,

On yesterday afternoon the members composing these interesting societies gave a most elegant banquet to Rev. Bro. Paulian, profit in the provincial of the Christian Brothers. A few words of warm welcome to the provincial, to the which he responded most happily, served as a prelude to the banquet. After partaking of a great variety of savory viands and confections, the orchestra played a few appropriate selections.

Exhward Yoegeli then came forward, and in the name of the students heartily thanked the provincial for the exceeding great interest be manifested in their welfare by coming to attend their commencement exercises; that it was their desire to do him all possible honor, and that they hoped he would accept the will for the deed.

The provincial expressed himself greatly deligated to meet students animated with sential seatments and such an excellent provincial will be a sentiments and such an excellent of thirty years and that from all he could perceive he could not help congratulating them on the excellent home and college training of their years and the dependent of their commencement exercises which were much better than anyone could reasonably have expected after such a short season. He expressed himself highly gratified at the success of their commencement exercises twelve months hence, when he hoped to visit them again.

The following is a list of the students composing the college band and orchestra, and who entertained the provincial with a most elegant barquet: James Daly, Edward Vorgeli, Henry Monaghan, William Hein, Henry Fransell, Henry Monaghan, William Hein, Henry Promas Kelly, Amos Millot, Andrew Vaccaro, John Flitgerald, Felix Fransioli, Robert Cahill, William Lann, Frank Venn, William Geanne, William App, Edward Masigan, Edward Hally, Gustare Gronnucr, Joseph Venn, George Bigley.

In reply to this it was urged that as her dispute with the church authorities was published in the Utah press, and had got to be in some measure public property, there was slight use of the hiding her light under a bushel anyhow.

Sayre Female Institute. Dr. R. W. Mitchell, of this city, has fur nished us with the twenty-sixth annual cata-logue of the Sayre female institute, located at Lexington, Kentucky, and judging from his enthusiastic commendation of this school, toenthusiastic commendation of this school, together with the praise of those of our citizens who have patronized it, we presume there is not a better institution in the south for the education of young ladies. This school has always been a flavorite with the people of Memphis, and justly so, for the principal, Mr. H. B. M'Clelland, is highly recommended by such men as General R. E. Lee, of Virginia, Dr. D. D. Saunders, Major W. A. Goodman, C. N. Grosvenor, Rev. E. M. Richardson, Dr. R. W. Mitchell, and B. M. Estes, of Memphis, all of whom speak from personal knowledge. The Louisville papers contain full reports of the closing exercises of the Sayre female institute on the seventh instant, and they are very interesting, fully showing that this school is worthy the patronagej it has won and the high position it occupies not only in Kentucky but in many of the southern States. The exercises were brought to a close on the seventh of this month by a distribution of the prizes, and, we are gratified to see the names of Miss Louise K. Goodman and Miss Kate L. Richardson, of Memphis, among the last of graduates. This establishment, if not the oldest, is certainly strong asservation. In his ministrations he had the Yankee acuteness and knew how to wield an influence over his followers. She believed that the tendency of Mormonism was to drift into Spiritualism. Regarding herself, she was adrift, but had an inclination for the unselfish, noble devotion of the sisters. She had the address of Rev. Father Keller, of St. Louis university, and others whom she intended calling upon.

Goodman and Miss Kate L. Richardson, of Memphis, among the list of graduates. This establishment, if not the oldest, is certainly the most eminent of the Presbyterian schools for yr ang ladies. Charmingly situated, with extensive grounds and roomy, elegant buildings, located in one of the richest sections of country in the world, it has natural advantages over its rivals in other parts of the State. It is under the wing of the Southern Presbyterian church, a rich and powerful organization, is liberally endowed and is presided over by an able instructor, Major H. B. M'Clelland, formerly of the army of Virginia. He is a gentleman of rare accomplishments as a teacher, with a capacity for controlling young people and developing

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Office of Internal Revenu

Washington, D. C., January 28, 1880.

Messrs, Lawrence & Martin, 111 Madison str Chleago, Ill.—Gentlemen: I have received "a co fied formula," giving the ingredients and rela proportions used in the manufacture of an art which you advertise and sell under the name
"TOLU, ROCK AND RYE." This compound, cording to your formula, in the opinion of this off would have a sufficient quantity of the BALSAM TOLU to give it all the advantages ascribed to ta article in pectoral complaints, while the Whis and Syrup constitute an emulsion rendering to compound an agreeable remedy to the patient.
In the opinion of this office, an article compound according to this formula, may properly be class as a medicinal pseparation under the provisions Schedule A, following section 3437, United Stat Bevised Statutes, and when so stamped may be so by Drugsists, Apothecaries and other persons, will cout rendering them liable to pay a special tax made many acquaintances and we named a steamboat on Salt lake after him, changing the name to General Garfield, from the Cor-inne—I believe."

The reporter was about to intimate that probably before the season closed, the General Garfield might be sailing up Salt river instead of the lake of that name, but he refrained, and changing the subject, hazarded the inquiry as to her present relation with the Mormon people. She reiterated her wish
